

I am 100% OPPOSED to the proposal to allow Cell phone use on commercial air planes.

There is absolutely no justification for imposing loud and often trivial cell phone conversations on people already forced to endure undersized seats in overcrowded airplane passenger compartments.